To Whom It May Concern

Ms. Tuhina Bose worked with us for a period of two years (02-07-2012 to 30-04-2014) as an Assistant Professor in the Department of English. During this period I found her to be self-motivated, diligent and driven to the cause of teaching.

During her tenure she handled various teaching and administrative responsibilities with enthusiasm. The subjects she taught included Indian Writing in English, Postcolonial Literature, Diasporic Literature, Modern British Fiction and Drama and Modern British Poetry. She also handled the Environmental Science paper of the Special Course and Resistance Literature of the Cross Faculty Course.

Ms Tuhina was a good teacher and was able to generate considerable interest in her core areas of teaching, especially Indian Writing. She handled large classes of over a hundred students effectively. She is intelligent and possesses good communication skills.

As a person Tuhina is cordial and helpful to her colleagues. She was found to be approachable and kind by the students.

I wish Ms. Tuhina Bose success in all her future endeavours.

Sincerely,
